TMOTA 2005

The Tiger Meet of the Americas (TMOTA) for 2005 was held at Mountain Home AFB, Idaho. Hosted by the Bold Tigers of the 381st Fighter Squadron, this was the third TMOTA since this events inception in 2001.

A total of 7 units with 25 aircraft and over 300 personnel from Canada, Europe and the United States were hosted by the Bold Tigers for the week long event.

There were several trophies awarded during the event:

The maintenance trophy went to the 391st FS.

Best Tiger Painted Jet went to the Colorado ANG.

TMOTA 2007 host, and runner-up trophy went to the 78th FS.

TMOTA 2005 overall winning team were the the 140th WG / 126th FS, Colorado ANG.

The Colorado ANG were the winners of the Best Painted Tiger Jet award with this striking paint scheme that was applied to their F-16. The 140th Wing has built up quite a reputation here in the US for applying some of the most elaborate and unique schemes to their jets for various events.

Twobobs' goal is to provide you with the most thoroughly researched decals that money can buy. We go beyond using traditional reference resources and many times speak with the actual crewmen and maintainers of our subject matter.

Being modelers ourselves, we understand that there is no substitute for this painstaking research and we are proud to offer, what we feel, are the best decals on the market. If you have any subject matter that you feel should be the next Twobobs creation, let us know. We'll be happy to listen to any and all customer input.
