49th Fighter Group P-40N's

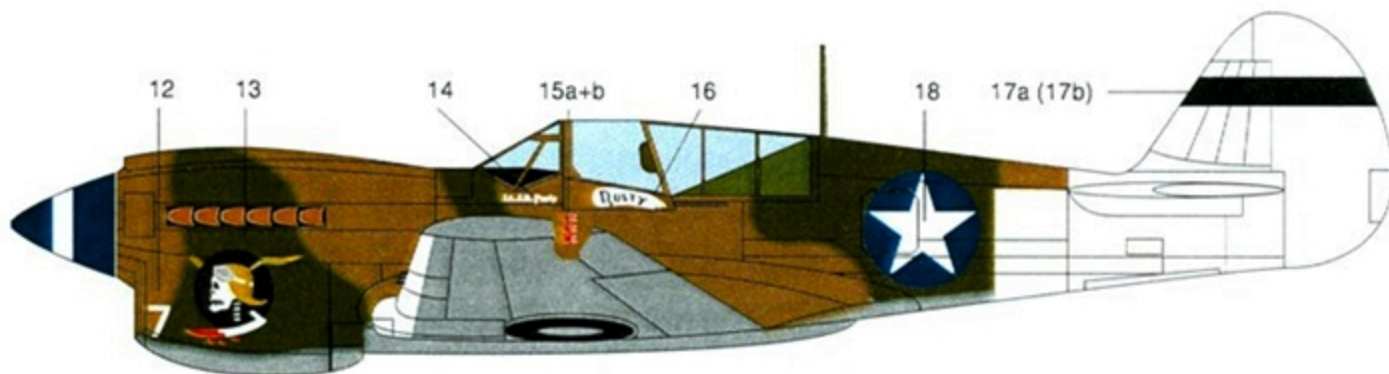

P-40N-5CU, flown by 1st Lt. Jack A. Fenimore, 7th Ftr. Sqn. Olive Drab over Neutral Gray, with white empennage and wing leading edges. Medium blue and white spinner, with medium blue also applied to the cowling's leading edge.

P-40N, piloted by Lt. Robert M. DeHaven, 7th Ftr. Sqn., Aug., 1943. Olive Drab over Neutral Gray, with white empennage and wing leading edges. Note that the white does not cover the landing gear fairing's forward "knuckle." Spinner is medium blue and white. Also, note that the serial number's background is Olive Drab.

Capt. Richard J. Vodra's P-40N "Squirlbate" of the 8th Ftr. Sqn. appears to sport Dark Green and Middlestone over Azure blue with white empennage and a white/yellow spinner.

P-40N-25, flown by Lt. Joel B. Paris, 7th Ftr. Sqn. This machine possibly wears Dark Green and Dark Earth over Neutral Gray, with the typical white theater empennage markings. The spinner appears to be insignia blue and white. See note on other page.
