

AeroMaster™

PRODUCTS

Best Sellers

"IMPERIAL HAYATES"

Pt. I

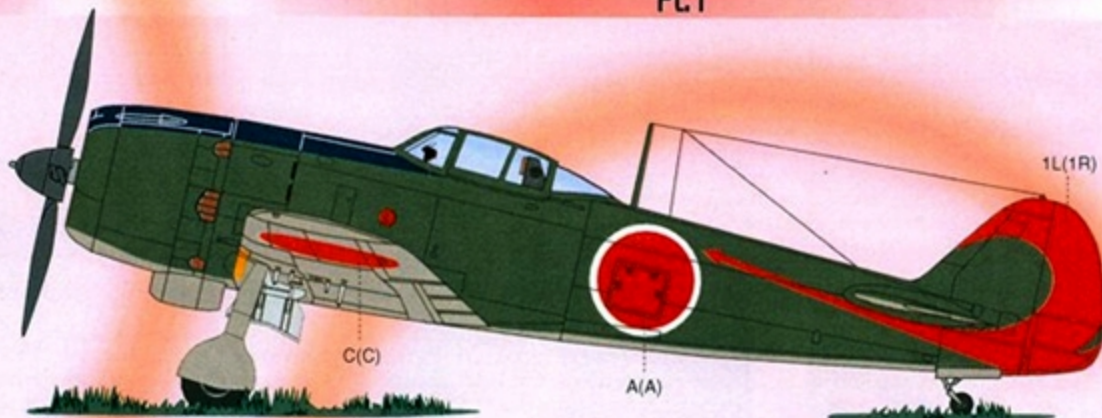

Suggested Kit: Hasegawa Ki-84 Hayate

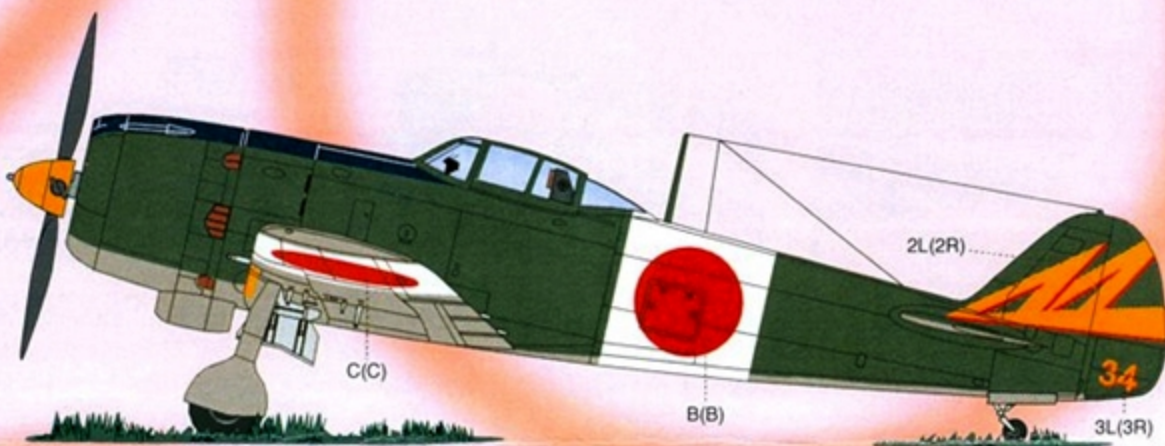

"IMPERIAL HAYATES"

Pt. I

Ki-84 Hayate, 29th Hiko-Sentai, 2nd Chutai, Taichu, Formosa, Summer 1945. Nakajima Dk. Green with Gray/Green under surfaces. Dk Gray/Green spinner/prop assembly. Red tail markings.

Ki-84 Hayate, 47th Hiko-Sentai 3rd Chutai, Narimasu Airfield, Tokyo, Japan, 1945. Nakajima Dk. Green with Gray/Green under surfaces. White Home Defense markings applied. Yellow spinner. Dk Gray/Green prop.

Nakajima Ki-84a Hayate, 57th Special Attack Company, Japan, 1945. Upper surfaces Black, lower surfaces Light Gray or Natural Metal. Inner leading edges of wings Yellow. Spinner and propeller Dk Gray/Green. Note bomb racks on lower wings. Some sources depict A/C of the 57 S.A.U in a deep Chocolate Brown color. Whichever color you decide to use, will not alter the decal features.

Ki-84Ko Hayate, flown by Capt. Tadao Ikeda, Commanding officer of 51st Hiko-Sentai, 3rd Chutai, Shimodate Airbase, from Dec. 1944 to VJ 1945. Nakajima Dk. Green with Gray/Green under surfaces. White and Dk. Gray/Green spinner/prop assembly. 715 is the production number of this a/c. Unit markings is a stylized White "51" with Red borders.

