Lightnings in Drab Battle Dress - Part 1

48-080

P-38J-5-LO, 42-67291, "Haleakala II", 459th FS, 80th FG, Chittagong, India, 1944. Flown by Lt. H. H. Sealy. Standard Olive Drab and Neutral Gray camouflage with bright green dragon motif on cowlings and tail booms. Yellow outlines for the dragon's tail are provided separately. This will allow the modeler to choose to use either the green decals provided, matching the green for the forward cowlings and spinners, or to paint the entire green sections using the templates provided on the reverse side of the instruction sheet. This aircraft was equipped with fuselage mounted 4.5" bazooka tubes. See references. Parts for the nacelle design are marked L & R on the decal.

P-38J, serial unknown, "Miss Ann", 7th FS, England, March 1944.
Experimental camouflage of Olive Drab and gloss black.
