

P-39Q AIRACOBRA

A P-39Q Airacobra Serial No. unknown of 10<sup>o</sup> Gruppo at Galatina airfield near Lecce during late 1944. Overall finish is #41 olive drab over #43 neutral gray. Spinner is red with a small white stripe. Aircraft possibly transferred from the 332nd Fighter Group, the famous "Tuskegee Airmen".

B P-39Q Airacobra "SAD SACK" Serial Number 42-19510, flown by Captain James Van Nada. Markings include an early version of Sad Sack (inset) and the later version from the 72nd Fighter Squadron, 7th Fighter Command on Makin Island in early 1944. Finish is #41 Olive Drab over #43 Neutral Gray.

C P-39Q Airacobra "Texas Ed" Serial Number 42-19547, of the 46th SQ, 7th Fighter Command flown by Flight Officer Felix Scott in late 1943. Unique color scheme is U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Tan #3 (FS-33448) over light blue (FS-35550, a mix of white and insignia blue).

D P-39Q Airacobra "Texas Ed II" flown by Flight Officer Felix Scott early in 1944. The aircraft was repainted with Dark Olive Drab #41 over original light blue. Scott, flying "Texas Ed II", bagged a Japanese night intruder over Makin on 15 January 1944

E P-39Q Airacobra "SNOOKS 2nd" Serial Number 42-19510, of the 82nd TRS flown by Lt. William Shomo in May, 1943 over New Guinea. Tail section and leading wing edges on "Snooks 2nd" are painted white. The serial number is yellow over olive drab. Finish is Dark Olive Drab #41 over Neutral Gray #43.

F P-39Q Airacobra "Annie, Tojo's Lorelei" Serial Number 42-19463. Overall finish is Dark Olive Drab #41 over Neutral Gray #43.

Three Guys Replicas™ P-39Q AIRACOBRA

Recommended kit: Monogram
Pro Modeler P-39Q

NOTE Italian National Insignias on upper and lower positions on both wings.

E
Leading wing edge identification markings are painted white.

11 / 12

Smaller Star and Bars (Decal #12) Positioned on the lower wing to clear the gun pylon.

Tail section on Snooks 2nd painted white

C
"Texas Ed" was finished in Corps of Engineers Tan over light blue. (See front page for color instructions)

National Insignia is located in the standard positions.

All Three Guys Replicas Decals are based on a combination of original photographs, technical descriptions and/or first person accounts depicting all markings.

This ensures when you purchase any Three Guys Replicas Decal Sheet you are buying the most accurate decals possible.

A

10 / 11

Army Corp of Engineers Tan #3

Light Blue
a mix of white and insignia blue

Neutral Gray #43 60/40 mix of white and black

Dark Olive Drab
#41

B D F

3 / 4

National Insignia is located in the standard positions. All three aircraft were heavily weathered.
NOTE: "Texas Ed II" was finished in Dark Olive Drab over the original light blue.