AV-8B & GR.7 Harrier

Featured in the Squadron/Signal book "AV-8 Harrier In Action" (SS #1209)

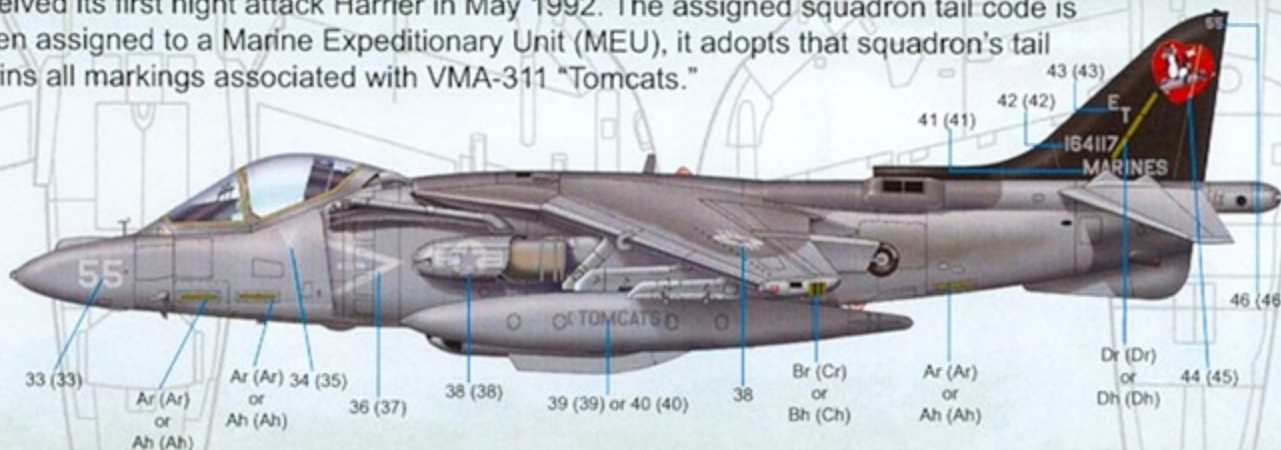

This GR.7 ZD407 from 20 (Reserve) Squadron is based at RAF Wittering at Kemble, England. The squadron serves as the Operational Conversion Unit (OCU) for the GR.7. The unit's motto is Facta non verba (Deeds not Words).

This AV-8B (162972) from Marine Attack Squadron (VMA)-231 saw combat during Operation Desert Storm in early 1991 and returned to Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Cherry Point, North Carolina, in the spring of 1991.

VMA-311 received its first night attack Harrier in May 1992. The assigned squadron tail code is "WL," but when assigned to a Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU), it adopts that squadron's tail code but retains all markings associated with VMA-311 "Tomcats."

This AV-8B Harrier II Night Attack (NA) from VMA-211 has a star carried on the disk below the windscreen, in honor of the defense of Wake Island during World War II.
