

Vought OS2U Kingfisher

SCALE 1/48

CATN: 48-000

PRINT-SCALE

PDF: PRINTSCALE.ORG

Red

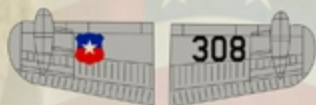

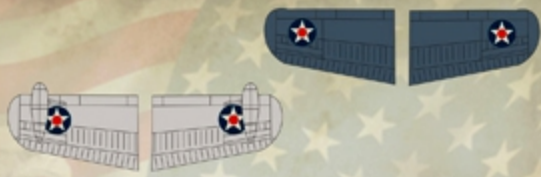

Lt. Gray

Blue Gray

Sea Blue

Silver Inquer
Orange-Yellow

Silver Inquer

- 1 OS2U-3 Unit: Northern Fleet, No. 1 Two Kingfisher were served in Soviet Union. In Spring 1944 USSR temporary got ex-Italian light cruiser Milwaukee. It delivered on 24th August 1944 to Northern Fleet and renamed Murmansk. Onboard it carried 2 OS2U-3 Kingfisher, they still wore American White/Grey painting and re-coded '1' and used as trainers and liaisons.

One aircraft was tested by I.A. Platonov (included catapults take off). In 1947 Milwaukee and Kingfishers returned to American.

- 2 OS2U-3 Unit: Fuerza Aerea de Chile No. 308, View of the OS2U-3 Kingfisher showing the Nr. 308, first FACH plane flew over the national Antarctic territory in 1947. Note: Chilean Kingfishers wore telescopic sights only for a brief time after its arrival to Chile.

- 3 Kingfisher Mk.I, Unit: 765 NAS, FAA ,No. Fn678 Sandbanks, England,1943. Seaplane pilot training unit

- 5 Vought OS2U-2 of VS-2D1 (First Naval District - Inshore Patrol Squadron), NAS Quonset Point R.I., soring 1941. Overall Aluminium Varnish with upper wing surfaces in Orange-Yellow. Cowl, Fusalago and pontoon stripes are insignia Red.

- 4 US Navy NAVAL air base 100: Corpus Christi, Texas, 1942.

