

NA Mustang Mk.IV, KH655/QV-P of No. 19 Squadron, RAF Peterhead in early 1945.
(Ref: Osprey Aces 93, P.39: MAM May 2005).

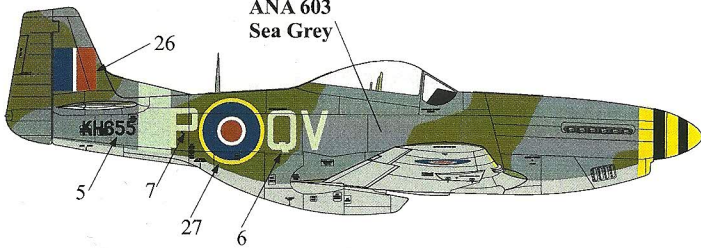

NOTE: Decal 30 (B Type roundel) is provided to enable KH655 to be reverted to it's late 1944 finish - without the Black/yellow nose markings and with a Sky spinner.

NOTE: Some sources suggest the Sea Grey was replaced by Ocean Grey, however, comparison of a Greyscale print of the drawing(s), suggests otherwise.

Anti-Glare and cockpit:- Refer to Note on next page

Note: KM232. Some drawings depict an all blue anti-glare panel. A photo in MAM and one with more contrast in IPMS Canada RT (Jan 71) shows this is not the case. The pale panel forward of the cockpit matches the canopy sill tone and is much lighter than the remaining colour in that area, which is in turn is lighter than the dark blue edging. It also follows the line of the OD anti-glare and is represented as ANA 613 Olive Drab.

Note: Rear position of 32" roundel (supported by photographs).

KH655
(The pattern is unofficially identified as the "Firewall Scheme" because the OD follows the line of the firewall)
